VERSE 1

I'D LIKE DIE, I'D BE A WRECK,
IF I CANNOT CONNECT.

OH A TEXT!

WITH MY FRIENDS EVERYWHERE,
THOUGH I'M HERE, AND YOU'RE THERE,
I CAN SHOW YOU I CARE.
MY WHOLE LIFE IS IN THIS SQUAR-Y THING.
YOUR PAIN, I WON'T FORGET.

A SALE AT THE MALL?

PLEASE REMIND ME HAVE WE MET?

I NEED A SMALL.

EITHER WAY, YOU WILL STAY

JUST GET THEM ALL!

IN MY HEART, SO DO NOT FRET.

IF I COULD NOT STAY INFORMED.

OR A STATUS, OR TWO

FROM A MOVIE STAR WHO'S REALLY COOL.

OPTIONAL MONOLOGUE SET UP

Receptionist sits at her desk in the hospital Surgery Waiting Room.

RECEPTIONIST

(to Grandma, off stage)

OK, thanks, Mrs. Long. Tell Mr. Long I'll be right here during the whole surgery.

Wait.

What did you mean, "What would we do without our phones?"

(with concern)

What would we do without our phones?

(increasing concern)

What would we do without our phones?

(frantically, to phone)

Siri, is it possible to survive without a phone?

Hits search, then waits.

Go.

Moves around, holding the phone up to find a signal.

GO. GO! GO! SEND! SEND!

Checks screen, sees it isn't sending. Panics.

WHAT?!?! No service?!? They should get better internet in this hospital...in case of emergencies.

Holds phone up again for service. Checks screen.

Big relief. Wipes her brow. It's been 4 seconds.

RECEPTIONIST

Finally!
